SHIPPING.The 21st March 1917.

No. 3412-S.—The following Order in Council is published for general information in certification of the notification in this Department No. 2562-S., dated the 2nd March 1917:—

AT THE COURT AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

THE 10th DAY OF FEBRUARY 1917.

PRESENT.

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by an Order in Council, dated the 27th day of March 1915, His Majesty was pleased to direct certain measures to be taken against the commerce of the enemy:

And whereas the German Government has now issued a memorandum declaring that, from the 1st February 1917, all sea traffic will be prosecuted in certain areas therein described adjacent to Great Britain and France and Italy, and that neutral ships will navigate the said areas at their own risk,

And whereas similar directions have been given by other enemy Powers.

And whereas the orders embodied in the said memoranda are in flagrant contradiction with the rules of international law, the duties of humanity, and the treaty obligations of the enemy:

And whereas such proceedings on the part of the enemy render it necessary for His Majesty to adopt further measures in order to maintain the efficiency of those previously taken in respect of vessels of any kind from reaching or leaving the enemy countries, and for this purpose to subject to capture and condemnation vessels carrying goods with an enemy destination or of enemy origin unless they stand into the faces of His Majesty and His African people opportunities of examining their cargoes, and also to subject such goods to condemnation:

His Majesty is therefore pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the following directions shall be observed in respect of all vessels which sail from their port of departure after the date of this Order:

(1) A vessel which is encountered at sea on any way to or from a port in any enemy country affording access of access to the enemy territory without calling at a port in British or Allied territory shall, until the contrary is established, be deemed to be carrying goods with an enemy destination, or of enemy origin, and shall be brought in for examination, and, if necessary, for adjudication before the Prize Court.

(2) Any vessel carrying goods with an enemy destination, or of enemy origin, shall be liable to capture and condemnation in respect of the cargoes of such goods; provided that, in the case of any vessel which calls at an appointed British or Allied port for the examination of her cargo, no sentence of condemnation shall be pronounced in respect only of the cargoes of goods of enemy origin or destination, and no such presumption as is laid down in article 1 shall arise.

(3) Goods which are found on the examination of any vessel to be goods of enemy origin or of enemy destination shall be liable to condemnation.

(4) Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to affect the liability of any vessel or goods to capture or condemnation independently of this Order.

(5) This Order is supplemental to the Orders in Council of the 11th day of March 1915, and the 16th day of January 1917, for restricting the commerce of the enemy.

(2) If the petition is an appeal against an order of dismissal from Government service, the papers submitted by the head of the office or department should show whether the charge against the petitioner was reduced to writing; whether his defence was taken and reduced to writing; and whether the decision was in writing. - (11) When the action deemed in a petition to be the action of a lawyer and not of a right, or when an officer fails to obtain an appointment in which conditions of suitability are not usually held to apply.

5. Local Governments, Administrations, and Political Officers in direct subordination to the Foreign Department of the Government of India are vested with discretionary power to withhold memorials addressed to the Government of India in the following cases:—

- (1) When the memorial is illegible or unsatisfactory.
- (2) When the memorial contains language which, in the opinion of the authority who would otherwise forward it, is derogatory, disrespectful, or improper.
- (3) When a previous petition of the memorialist (which term includes a rejoinder submitted by the memorialist in answer to a previous petition of some other party) has been disposed of by the Secretary of State or the Governor-General in Council, and the petition discloses no new facts or circumstances which afford grounds for a reconsideration of the case.
- (4) When the memorial relates to a matter which is within the competence of the Local Government, Administration, or Political Officer to dispose of, and no application has previously been made to such Government, Administration, or Political Officer for redress.
- (5) When the memorial is an appeal preferred more than six months after the date on which the memorialist was informed of the orders against which he appeals, provided that the Local Government, Administration or Political Officer in the case may be, may, at their or his discretion, extend the period to twelve months, if the delay will facilitate a settlement of the dispute, or other good cause is shown.
- (6) When the memorial refers to matters in which the memorialist is not personally interested.

7. Provided they do not contravene the conditions specified in the preceding section, memorials which are appeals against orders passed by Local Governments, Administrations, and Political Officers in direct subordination to the Foreign Department of the Government of India, in the exercise of political control in territories not included in British India, shall be forwarded, except in the following cases in which a discretionary power to withhold the memorials may be exercised:—

- (2) When the order appealed against is a recommendation to exercise political control in regard to a judgment or order of any special Court established by the Governor-General in Council in such territories, from which Court there is, by its constitution, no appeal, though a general political control over it is declared or understood to exist.
- (3) When the order appealed against is a recommendation to interfere in a matter of purely internal policy with the affairs or affairs of the Ruler of a Native State, of which the memorialist is a subject: provided that the State is one in which it is not customary for the British Government to interfere in matters of internal policy, and that the matter complained of does not disclose a state of affairs so gross that the paramount power would be called upon to interfere.

NOTE—This rule applies to a temporary administration established in a Native State by the Governor-General in Council when the temporary administration is appointed to exercise the same powers and occupy the same position as the Native administration which it supersedes.

† E.g., petitions from Government servants about discipline, pensions, etc.

II.—Memorials, etc., addressed to His Majesty the King-Emperor of India, or to the Secretary of State for India,

1. Every memorial must be submitted to the Political Officer of the State within whose jurisdiction the subject-matter lies, accompanied by a copy of the order appealed against and by a letter requesting its transmission to the authority to which it is addressed.

2. Memorials may be transmitted either in manuscript or in print, but must, with all accompanying documents, be properly authenticated by the signature of the memorialist on each sheet.

3. Subject to the exceptions hereinafter contained, every memorial received which conforms to the above rules should be forwarded by the Political Officer through the usual official channel, with a concise statement of material facts, and unless there be special reasons to the contrary, an expression of opinion.

4. Memorials, together with their accompanying documents, should be in English. If the accompanying documents must necessarily be forwarded in the vernacular, an English translation should be appended, which should be verified by the signature of the memorialist on each sheet.

N.B.—The transmitting officer should enclose such translations, and if they are found to be incorrect or faulty, under the fact as existing in the memorial.

5. Every memorial should be accompanied by copies of all the orders passed in the case by the authorities who have dealt with it in India.

6. Local Government, Administrations, and Political Officers* in Great subordination to the Foreign and Political Department of the Government of India, are vested with discretionary power to withhold memorials addressed to His Majesty or to the Secretary of State in the following cases:—

- (1) When the memorial is illegible or unintelligible;
- (2) When the memorial contains language which, in the opinion of the authority who would otherwise forward it, is defamatory, disrespectful, or improper;
- (3) When a previous petition of the memorialist (which bears evidence of a genuine solicitude by the memorialist to comply with a previous petition of some other party) has been disposed of by the Secretary of State, and the petition discloses no new facts or circumstances which afford grounds for a reconsideration of the case;
- (4) When the memorialist has not previously appealed to the Government of India (or the Government of Madras, Bombay or Bengal, as the case may be), and applied the duties of the Government-General (or Governor) in Council upon it;
- (5) When the memorial is an appeal preferred more than six months after the date on which the memorial was informed of the action against which he appeals, with the memorialist was informed of the action against which he appeals, as the period that the Local Government, Administration, or Political Officer, as the case may be, may, at their or his discretion, extend the period to twelve months, if the delay will facilitate a settlement of the dispute, or other good cause is shown;
- (6) When the memorial refers to matters in which the memorialist is not personally interested;
- (7) When the memorial is in effect an appeal in a boundary case between Native States in which the decision, original or appellate, of the Political Officer, has been passed on which the decision, original or appellate, of the Political Officer, has been passed, after inquiry on the spot and confirmed an appeal by the Local Government, Local Administration or the Government of India, as the case may be;
- (8) Cases which turn entirely on questions of fact, when the Political Officer and Local Government or Local Administration are in agreement.

7. Provided they do not contravene the conditions specified in the preceding section, memorials which are appeals against orders passed by the Government-General in Council (or Governor in Council in Madras, Bombay or Bengal, as the case may be), or the orders of Government in Council not included in British India, shall be forwarded, except in the political matters in which a discretionary power to withhold the memorials may be exercised in the following cases, in which a discretionary power to withhold the memorials may be exercised:

* Political Officers who are not heads of Local Administrations may not exercise discretionary powers to withhold memorials if the fact referred to in clauses (7) and (8) of Rule 6.

- (3) When the order appealed against is a mere refusal to exercise political control in regard to a judicial or internal dispute settled by the Government-General in Council in such territories, from which Court there is, by its constitution, no appeal, though a general political control over it is desired or undisturbed to exist;
- (4) When the order appealed against is a mere refusal to interfere in matters of purely internal policy with the active co-operation of the Native States, of which the new colony is a subject; provided that the State is one in which it is not essential for the British Government to intervene in matters of internal policy, and that the entire compliance of duty not include a state of morals or gross that the requested court would be called upon to interfere.

U.S.—This rule applies to a temporary administration established in a Nation State by the Government-General in Council when the temporary Administration is appointed to exercise the executive and manage the affairs pending in the Nation Administration which it represents.

PART II.

As to what property a deceased Mappila is entitled to, see Part II, section 3.

Explanation.—“Property” in this section does not include tarwad property unless the person dying intestate is the sole surviving member of his tarwad.

Provisions of this part apply.

Commencement of this Act.

3. A person is considered to die intestate in respect of all property of which he has not made a testamentary disposition capable of taking effect.

4. Such property shall, notwithstanding any custom to the contrary, devolve upon his heirs in the order and according to the rules of Mohammedan Law.

5. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any intestacy occurring before the 1st day of January 1917.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

During the last few years, there has been a feeling among the Mappilas of South Malabar and South Kanara, who are hitherto following the Maramakkattayam or the Althamattam Law of Inheritance, that their properties should, on their dying intestate, devolve on their own children under the ordinary Mohammedan Law, and not on the children of their sisters. This feeling has been growing intense with the advent of civilization as people have begun to realize the interests of their own family apart from the interests of a tarwad which comprises large number of families among its fold. The customary “Maramakkattayam Law” is not followed by the Mappilas of South Malabar, who follow the ordinary “Mohammedan Law” of Inheritance. Further, the Maramakkattayam law is opposed to the teachings and tenets laid down in the holy Koran. The “Maramakkattayam Law” seems to have been originally borrowed from their Hindu neighbours. The Mohammedan community now holds the integrity of the usage and looks upon the prevailing custom as a departure to their religion and to their community. There have been a consensus of opinion in favour of the Bill, and the Bill will be a most popular measure, as the Mappilas who follow the Maramakkattayam custom of inheritance are practically unknown in their opinion. Government are satisfied of the wishes of the Mappila community in this regard, and have already expressed their welcome to a Bill designed to carry the wishes of the community into effect, through the Collector of Malabar.

The Bill is simple in itself and will apply only to the ordinary properties of a Mohammedan, and will not apply to the tarwad properties, inasmuch as it is not proposed to disturb at present having them to devolve as usual under the existing law.

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill further to amend the Indian Registration Act, 1915, was presented to the Indian Legislative Council on the 10th March 1917 :—

We, the undersigned, Members of the Select Committee to which the Bill further to amend the Indian Registration Act, 1915, was referred, have considered the Bill and the papers sent in this matter, and have now the honour to submit this report, with the Bill as amended by us annexed thereto.

3. The Hon'ble Member thought that since the decision of the Policy Council referred to in the Statement of Objects and Reasons it was probable that many suits had been dismissed by reason of similar mistakes in registration offices in the United Provinces. The Committee, however, had no information as to the number of cases which might be involved, and, as in the desirability of repeating proceedings in them; and as there is no reason to believe that such suits have occurred in any other province, the Committee thought that it might appropriately be left to the United Provinces themselves to deal with this question, and they were unwilling to recommend that any provision should be made in the present Bill to deal with them.

Proceedings of the Indian Legislative Council assembled under the provisions of the Government of India Act, 1915 C & S 6 Sec. V, Ch. III.

The Council met at the Council Chamber, Imperial Secretariat, Delhi, on Monday, the 12th March 1917.

PRESENT:

The Hon'ble Mr. G. R. Llewellyn, Vice-President, presiding, and 40 Members, of whom 41 were Additional Members.

STATEMENTS LAID ON THE TABLE.

The Hon'ble Mr. Kharasra Chaudhary laid on the table statements¹ showing prices taken against Printing Presses and Newspapers under the Indian Press Act, 1908, which were presented in reply to a question asked by the Hon'ble Mr. M. B. Dabhoiwalla on the 5th September 1916.

The Hon'ble Mr. Kharasra Chaudhary.—“As requested by the Hon'ble Mr. Tej Bahadur Sapru, a statement² laid on the table showing the names of newspapers dealt with under the Indian Press Act, 1908, where it came into force, and the places, provinces and languages in which they were, or are printed, and the names of their proprietors. For the further information asked for by the Hon'ble Member is referred to the statement laid on the table on the request of the Hon'ble Mr. Dabhoiwalla. The statement includes all papers which have benefited thereby in the ordinary course under section 3 (2) as first coming into existence, as well as all papers that have only been started.”

THE FREIGHT (RAILWAY AND ISLAND STEAM-VESSEL) TAX BILL.

The Hon'ble Mr. Kharasra Chaudhary.—“Sir, I move for leave to introduce a Bill to impose a tax on goods carried by railway or island steam-vessel.

“The scope and object of the Bill are, I hope, sufficiently defined in the Statement of Objects and Reasons which I had the honour to move, and which is at the hands of Hon'ble Members. I need not repeat what is therein said, and I do not know that it is necessary for me to add to it. The measure, as the Hon'ble Mr. Purnima Chaudhary has said, is a new measure, and it is hoped that it will add £2,00,000 to the resources of the Empire. I have a certain profit, therefore, in being associated as being in charge of the Bill with its inception, and I trust I shall not be taken as working in parental favour towards the measure if I ask the Council to adopt it.”

The motion was put and agreed to.

The Hon'ble Mr. Kharasra Chaudhary.—“Sir, I move that the Bill together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons relating thereto, be published in the Gazette of India in English.”

The motion was put and agreed to.

THE INDIAN BILLS OF EXCHANGE (AMENDMENT) BILL.

The Hon'ble Mr. J. R. Wansley Munn.—“Sir, I beg to move that the Bill to amend the Indian Bills of Exchange Act, 1908, be taken (as amendments). I do not propose to make any further remarks in connection with this measure which I explained fairly fully at an earlier stage of the proceedings. No amendments have been received, and I do not think, therefore, that it is necessary to deal further with what is a comparatively simple measure.”

The Hon'ble Mr. Kharasra Chaudhary.—“Sir, on behalf of the Government, I desire to say that we accept the Bill.”

The motion was put and agreed to.

The Hon'ble Mr. J. R. Wansley Munn.—“Sir, I beg to move that the Bill be passed.”

The motion was put and agreed to.

THE PREVENTION OF CRUELTY TO ANIMALS (AMENDMENT) BILL.

The Hon'ble Mr. Kharasra Chaudhary.—“Sir, I beg to present the Report of the Select Committee on the Bill to amend the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act, 1907.”

RESOLUTION ON REDUCTION OF A SUM OF THREE LAKHS FOR THE BIRLA ENDOWMENT.

The Hon'ble Mr. Kharasra Chaudhary.—“Sir, I move the following resolution:—

“That the Government be recommended to the Secretary General to consider that the provision made in the Budget for 1917-18 under the head ‘The General Administration’ be reduced by a sum of three lakhs, representing roughly the cost of the Birla endowment.”

“For, I am perfectly guilty of great indiscretion in bringing forward this resolution of reducing in what regards here by some have found to be a great deal. As a result of an error in my own mind, I have allowed myself to introduce a large sum of money into the Council. I am now that I shall have no chance to recover, and therefore I move to place this proposition for the judgment of the Council. It is an old controversy, but I do not know to take up the administration side. Although I have one of those who think that the end of the matter, both of the Government of India and of with a Government, as regards the Birla endowment, and that on the financial side, I shall not say more solely on the ground

General does not habitually discharge his public duties unless he takes the most likely method of rendering himself wholly unfit for them by a continuous residence in the torrid atmosphere of the plains.

"I did not go to the hills because I was sick. I did not go there to recover myself, or to enjoy myself. I went because my presence somewhere on the North-West Frontier was required, and so during five months of the year movement in the plains was indispensable. I spent then in the hills between three I could move the Company more laboriously and more efficiently than if I had been in the plains."

"So are you, would agree Lord Dalhousie of being better in energy and industry, and these are results which need time in the winter day specially of all those who like the Valley and Mountains of Coonoor from England were out to the country at a more advanced age and give more, I contend, of those who have spent their days and time their time in the working plains below."

"But, I think that a great deal of misapprehension surrounds this question simply because the design of this was represented as if they were more parties in the work of a modern Empire, and as if movement were the only object with which people went there and the rest of the year. There can be no greater mistake because the working of the Indian Empire is really at Simla, when there is leisure for education and for work amidst cool surroundings, and I am only sorry, if the Government of India were so dense in my view in the plains, that, in place of those harmless recreations which they see go, you would hear of very long and protracted Sunday drives, which would surely many more harm than any movements in Simla."

"But, Sir, the whole tenor of my argument has been that you could not separate administrative functions from the financial ones. It is entirely false economy if the work that you require for the year done in less efficient, the better it is only in name."

"The Hon'ble Mr. Darnley referred to the members who represent European commerce in this Council whom my friend the Hon'ble Mr. Baines once playfully described as 'mercantile adventurers'. Well, Sir, he is far from me in every mercantile adventure, for it was on the contrary—a of mercantile adventures that the whole Empire was built up, and, if it had not been for the enterprise of the early mercantile adventurers in India, I doubt whether the Hon'ble Mr. Baines or any of us would have been addressing this Council today. But I do not—and I am very glad to find—that those of my Hon'ble colleagues who represent the European interests of Calcutta and Bombay have not joined the opposition in regard to this matter. They perceive, I think, that there is really an association between the business transacted in Calcutta and Bombay and the business that has to be transacted by the Government of India in Simla. There are two kinds of work in which Government is engaged. Some of these relate to war, and most of these relate to peace. When you are dealing entirely with war, whenever be the climate, you have to stay down amongst men, and that is why the Calcutta houses, the banks and the judges and so on have to leave their homes in the plains. But it is only for war that you say that in the case of Calcutta firms the heads of those firms who are in a position in some way corresponding to the Government of India, often disappear altogether and manage the affairs of the firms from London or else, as they get a little older, they generally take leave home at least every other year. Therefore, I do not think that any association between their work and the work of the Government of India can be fairly done in the disadvantages of the latter. If you want to concern those affairs of Government who bear comparison most with the members of the firm in Calcutta, then you have got to go to your Calcutta, your Coimbatore, your Bangalore, your petroleum, your railways and all that busy place of business who spend their time in the plains."

"Now, Sir, if this Resolution had been brought some 50 years ago, when I began my career—at least in the part of the country that I know—there might have been something more to have been said for the view which the Hon'ble Mr. Baines has put forward. But, now-a-days, I find that Indians who are possessed of any means—members of the Bar and those who conduct businesses—are just as anxious to get away to cooler climates, and leaving home, I have heard many say that they no longer think that the profits of Government will suffice or be made in a Indian house."

"Lastly, as my Hon'ble Colleague the Finance Member said, there were really serious reasons for the particular suggestion that the Hon'ble Mr. Baines has made, namely, that we should suddenly repeat our plans in this stormy hour and decide to repeat our business in Delhi during the coming months. He rarely cannot be so foolish as to say that so many officers, and not only officers, but so many clerks, Europeans and Indians, should spend the next few months and the rains under such a sky as an alternative to what they have done, the only other course would be to build enormous shelter outside for the few weather and the rain for the whole establishment of the Government of India. Nay, further, it would be necessary to send down some of those who are at Simla and extend the accommodation yet wider, for Council must recognize that the arrangements at Delhi are still of a very temporary character. A great deal of the work that has been done involves constant prompt and meetings between Delhi and Simla of papers, and telegraphic messages, and when Hon'ble Mr. Baines put so questions which we want to answer immediately, there is a great deal of time lost in obtaining the information and in the passage of the letter and the other. On the contrary, if we were to go to the country, just as we go, with the Hon'ble Member advances, that the most method of arriving at the necessary would be to send down to Delhi in all, but to stay in Simla throughout the winter. I hope, therefore, that when I ask the Council to disagree with the Hon'ble Member, they will be ready to follow me in that disagreement. I know that the Hon'ble Mr. Baines is very devoted to the cause of India, and belongs to a society for which I have the greatest respect, the 'Society of India'; but I hope that we are not distant from each other, as I have said, before, he is trying to send away more, my also when I have in my way to be the cause of India."

"The Hon'ble Mr. Finance Member said—Sir, the Hon'ble the House Member has given me a soft answer and he has succeeded in turning every my words, although I am about to be met with in weakening my arguments. I do not, therefore, Sir, ask that the Resolution be not; he is put in the very best of defence to be in and in still greater defence to the Hon'ble Mr. Wicks from Bombay I would challenge the Resolution, but after I have dealt with a few of those remarks, which seem to me to be well for a reply."

"In the first place, the Hon'ble the House Member said that there are winter, monsoon and other people, sections of the country, who find it necessary to go up in the hills and who therefore
